NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW HEALTH INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION.

Our practice is dedicated, and we are required by applicable federal and state laws, to maintain the privacy of your health information. These laws also require us to provide you with the Notice of our privacy practices, and to inform you of your rights, and our obligations, concerning your health information. We must abide by the terms of this Notice. This notice is effective as of April 14, 2003, and will remain in effect until we replace it.

CHANGES TO NOTICE:

We reserve the right to change this Notice and the privacy practices described below at any time in accordance with applicable law. The new terms will be effective as to the entire PHI that we maintain about you. We will make any revised Notice available to you upon request.

PERMITTED USES AND DISCLOSURES OF HEALTH INFORMATION:

- A. TREATMENT, PAYMENT, HEALTHCARE OPERATIONS: You should be aware that during the course of our relationship with you we will likely use and disclose health information about you for activities as follows:
- Treatment* – We may use or disclose your health information to a physician or other healthcare provider providing treatment to you.
 - Payment* – We may use and disclose your health information to obtain payment for services we provide you.
 - Healthcare Operations* – We may use and disclose your health information in connection with our healthcare operations. This includes quality assessment activities, reviewing the competence or qualifications of healthcare professionals, evaluating practitioner and provider performance, and other business operations.
- B. AUTHORIZATIONS: You may specifically authorize us to use your health information for any purposes or to disclose your health information to anyone by submitting such an authorization in writing. Upon receiving an authorization from you in writing, we may use or disclose your health information in accordance with that authorization. You may revoke an authorization at any time by notifying us in writing. Your revocation will not affect any use or disclosures permitted by your authorization while it was in effect. Unless you give us a written authorization, we cannot use or disclose your health information for any reason except those permitted by this Notice.
- C. DISCLOSURES TO FAMILY AND PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES: We must disclose your health information to you, as described in the Patient Rights section of this Notice. Such disclosures will be made to any of your personal representatives appropriately authorized to have access and control of your health information. We may disclose your health information to a family member, friend, or other person to the extent necessary to help with your healthcare or with payment of your healthcare only if authorized to do so. In the event of your incapacity or in emergency circumstances, we will disclose health information based on a determination using our professional judgment disclosing only health information this is directly relevant to the person's involvement in your healthcare.
- D. MARKETING: We will not use your health information for marketing communications without your written authorization.
- E. USES AND DISCLOSURES REQUIRED BY LAW: We may use and disclose your health information when we are required to do so by law, including for public health reasons (e.g. disease reporting). In some instances, and in accordance with applicable law, we may be required to disclose your health information to appropriate authorities if we reasonably believe that you are a possible victim of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence or the possible victim of other crimes.

- F. PATIENT AND THIRD PARTY PROTECTIONS: Only as permitted by law, we may disclose your health information to the extent necessary to avert a serious threat to your health or safety or health or safety of others.
- G. LAW ENFORCEMENT/NATIONAL SECURITY: Under certain circumstances we may disclose health information relating to members of the Armed Forces to military authorities. Under certain circumstances we may also disclose health information relating to inmates or patients to correctional institutions or law enforcement personnel having lawful custody of those individuals. We may disclose health information in response to judicial proceedings and law enforcement inquiries as permitted by law and counterintelligences, and other national security activities.

PATIENT RIGHTS:

- A. ACCESS TO RECORDS: Upon submission of a written request to us, you have the right to review or receive copies of your health information, with limited exceptions. You may obtain a form to request access by using the contact information listed at the end of this Notice. You may request that we provide copies. We will charge you a reasonable cost-based fee related to copies and postage if you want the copies mailed to you. We will not charge a fee if the information is provided for the purpose of continuing care and that information is provided to either you, your health care decision maker, or another one of your health care providers.
- B. ACCOUNTING OF CERTAIN DISCLOSURES: Upon written request, you have the right to receive a list of instances in which we or our business associates disclosed your health information for purposes other than treatment, payment, healthcare operations and other activities authorized by you, for the last 6 years, but not before April 14, 2003. If you request this accounting more than once in a 12-month period, we may charge you a reasonable, cost-based fee for responding to these additional requests.
- C. RESTRICTIONS AND ALTERNATIVE COMMUNICATIONS: You may have the right to request that we place additional restrictions on our use and disclosure of your health information for treatment, payment and healthcare operations purposes. Depending on the circumstances of your request, we may, or may not agree to those restrictions. If we do agree to your requested restrictions we must abide by those restrictions, except in emergency treatment scenarios. You have the right to request that we communicate with you about your health information by alternative means or alternative locations (e.g. at your place of business rather than at your home). Such requests must be made in writing, must specify the alternative means or location you request.
- D. AMENDMENTS TO RECORDS: You have the right to request that we amend your health information. Such requests must be made in writing, and must explain why the information should be amended. We may deny your request under certain circumstances.
- E. ELECTRONIC NOTICES: If you receive this Notice on our Web site or by electronic mail (e-mail), you are entitled to receive this notice in written form.

QUESTIONS AND COMPLAINTS: If you want information about our privacy practices or have questions or concerns, please contact us. If you are concerned that we may have violated your privacy rights, or you disagree with a decision we made or any decision we may make regarding the use and disclosure, or access to your health information you may complain to us using contact information listed below. You may also submit a written complaint to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. We will provide you with the address to file such a complaint upon request.
